

ASSOCIATION OF

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS CONSULTING ENGINEERS

WASHINGTON, D.C.

AFCCE NEW MEMBER APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS

Thank you for your interest in the Association of Federal Communications Consulting Engineers (AFCCE). The objectives of AFCCE are stated in our Constitution and include:

- To aid and promote the proper federal administration and regulation of those engineering and technical phases of communications which are regulated by the Federal Communications Commission,
- To uphold the honor and dignity of engineers before the Federal Communications Commission, and
- To provide for the mutual improvement and social intercourse of the members of the Association.

Application and Admissions Procedure

Application for any grade of membership (except Member Emeritus) shall be made using the attached application form. Applicants for Full Membership shall be sponsored by two persons who are Full Members of the Association; applicants for Associate Membership or Student membership shall be recommended by two persons, one person who is a Full Member of the Association and one member of any grade. You can view the current membership listing online to aid in identifying potential sponsors for your application at: <https://afcce.org/membership-listing/>

Applicants for elevation to Full Membership from Associate Member grade follow the same procedure as new applicants for Full Membership.

The PDF application can be e-mailed to secretary@afcce.org or mailed to the address below. Dues can be paid online by credit card (use the “renew your membership” link on the website) or by check.

Pursuant to Article IV of the AFCCE Constitution, applications are first reviewed by the Admissions Committee. Then, upon review of the recommendations of the Admissions Committee, the Board of Directors circulates the name(s) of applicants to the AFCCE membership. Following a 21-day review period, approval by a majority of members of the Board participating and voting shall be required for election. Note that the Board of Directors does not meet every month, and so several months may pass before your application is voted.

AFCCE Bylaws, Membership Rules, Membership Privileges

Requirements for the different grades of AFCCE membership are specified in the AFCCE Bylaws. See: <https://afcce.org/afcce-governance/> Please review the Bylaws to determine the grade of membership for which you are eligible. If you have any questions, please contact the AFCCE Secretary at Secretary@AFCCE.org

Annual Membership Dues as of January 1, 2019 are:

Member Emeritus	$ 0
Full Member	$195
Associate Member	$175
Life Member	$ 20
Student Member	$ 20

AFCCE Scholarship Fund Donations

The AFCCE Scholarship Fund provides financial assistance to students who are undertaking a full-time undergraduate (Bachelor's) or graduate (Master's or PhD) program at an accredited college or university with a major in engineering or science and related to the telecommunications field.

Please consider a donation to the AFCCE Scholarship Fund. All donations made at the time of membership application will be MATCHED 100% (up to $200) by AFCCE. This is a great way to demonstrate your support for our scholarship program and for the training of future generations of broadcast engineers! Donations to the Scholarship Fund are generally tax deductible as the AFCCE Scholarship Fund, Inc. is a charitable organization under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Half-Year Dues and Submissions by Regular Mail

If the application is submitted after July 31, only HALF of the annual dues is required. Please make your check payable to "AFCCE" and mail with the application (if not submitted by e-mail) to:
